

Your Light has come

The darkness is undone
Embracing all the human race
His grace has made us one
All nations see His face

The radiance of our King
Shines to set us free
To Him our tribute bring
Adore His majesty

He shall rule with justice
Hear the cry of the poor
Love will be His witness
The afflicted to restore

This is our Christmas gift
Not gold, incense or myrrh
But heartfelt praises lift
And to His will defer

When we behold this treasure
In every child who cries
And peace becomes our pleasure
We too shall be called wise
